2. June 23 Bocce, June 24 Highway Cleanup

On Saturday, if there are enough for a tournament, we'll do that. If not, we'll just play bocce. Then on Sunday, meet in the lodge at 10 AM to take off for our 2-mile stretch of highway, and come back for another free lunch!

3. June 30 Canada Days celebration, — Full Moon Dance

Canada Day is July 1, and the Full Moon is June 28. We thought we'd split the difference and celebrate on Saturday with sand curling (ok, bocce), and a dance. Wayne's birthday is the 29th....

4. July 4 Cardboard Box Regatta

Take a big cardboard box and fashion it into a boat. The only thing you can use to put it together is Gorilla tape. This is such a fun event - hard to tell whether it's more fun to watch or to participate!

5. July 7 Second Bike Ride

As promised, we'll have a bike ride once a month all summer, weather permitting. Meet by the front door at 9 AM.

6. July 11-15 Skin to the Wind Festival of Fun

We have concerts scheduled for July 11, 12, 14, and 15. On the 13th, we'll have a jam session, including a stand-up comic, and your talent.

Among the workshops we're working on are a WINR meeting (that's Women in Nude Recreation). We'll have a wine and paint party, ping pong on the patio, Wanda is going to lead a T-Shirt cutting workshop, and we have some meaningful T-shirts to contribute! Bonnie has learned some new line dances and has agreed to teach them to us. We'll have THREE wine and cheese parties! There will be sports all day Saturday July 14, besides the blood drive we talk about below.

7. About that WINR Meeting

We've been teasing about the WINR meeting for a few weeks now. But we'd like to get women thinking about the topic, so here it is in a nutshell:

The WINR meeting will be a session with the aim of finding solutions to an infrequent, but ongoing problem. Imagine you're at an event at a nudist club. Or maybe you're just enjoying the club's pool or dinner. Or a movie or concert at a nudist club. You feel safe, but somebody bursts your safety bubble by touching you inappropriately, or approaching you inappropriately, or making a lewd joke. What do you do? Do you scream, and disturb everybody's event? Do you freeze and say nothing? Do you leave and quietly tell the club or event leaders? Or do you stuff it inside and let it continue to hurt you? We would like to turn this around and develop the skills and tools to stand up for ourselves. What are some positive steps we can take to stop the inappropriate actions?

This is not intended to be a "this is what happened to me" meeting. Something like that has probably happened to most, if not all, of us. We can spend the rest of the day sharing our experiences if we want to, but this meeting is meant to be a positive, working meeting. What we need do is to find a positive way to deal with the situation. What are your ideas? What has worked for you?

8. Blood Drive July 14 - a Pint for a Pint!

A lot of people have signed up to give blood on July 14. Now we have a form with the schedule on it, and we need to choose times. It begins at 10 AM, and they'll do 2 donors each 15 minutes. We ask that you call (208-686-8686) or email (sunmeadow@sunmeadow.org) to let us know what time you will come to give blood that day, or come to the lodge and sign the form. And thanks!!

Doug and Colleen have brewed a keg of beer for the event, and they've agreed to donate it so we can give some (or root beer) to each blood donor. No, not at 10 AM! We'll give each donor a ticket for the free beer and then tap the keg at the patio party.

Oh, and we have to wear something when we enter the bloodmobile. Sigh.

9. July 21 Cowgirl TV, S'mores, and a Jam Session

After all the work of the Skin to the Wind event, we all need to take a breather. So we'll just have cowgirl TV on the patio, make some s'mores, and make some music with a home-grown jam session.

10. July 27 Full Moon Dance, July 30 BBFR

The full moon is Friday the 27th. While we usually have our DJ dances on Saturdays, since we'll be leaving Sun Meadow at 6 AM on Sunday morning, we thought we'd schedule the dance for the night of the actual full moon (Friday) and go to bed early on Saturday. See you Friday!

Then, as noted above, at 6 AM on Sunday we'll leave here for a day at Kaniksu Ranch to run in or watch the annual Bare Buns Fun Run. We usually stay until about 1 or 2 PM, and are back in plenty of time for dinner. If you've never been to Kaniksu, it's a great chance to visit the club and not have to drive. We'll have a sign-up sheet outside the office.
