2. Cinco de Mayo

We'll play mariachi music until you're tired of it! And we'll come up with some Mexican recipes to celebrate this terribly American "holiday." We'll finish off Saturday (the actual "cinco") with a DJ dance.

3. May 13: Mother's Day

Just in case you're new to Sun Meadow, we want to tell you, and remind everybody else, that we'll have waffles for our hot breakfast on Mother's Day, and that breakfast is free for all moms. No worries, Dads, we'll be giving you free hot breakfast on Father's Day!

4. May 19: First Bike Ride of the Season

We normally have three bike rides every year, and if we start in May and have one a month, that will make four this year! So come enjoy the first one.

5. May 26-28: Memorial Day Weekend

We make a weekend of Memorial Day, with a DJ dance and a concert featuring Aaron English. We'll have our annual Rich Goetze Memorial Bocce Tournament, plus a pickleball tournament if the weather is good, and any other sports we want to do, like disk golf, volleyball, pickleball, and horse-shoes. And we always watch the Indianapolis 500 on the big screen. The outdoor pool will be ready before May even begins, so sunbathers can enjoy it.

6. Blood Drive July 14 - a Pint for a Pint!

We want to let everybody know that we've tentatively scheduled a blood drive for Saturday July 14. The Red Cross has put us on their schedule, they have already gotten a full busload of volunteers to staff the blood drive, and they will come to Sun Meadow IF WE HAVE AT LEAST 16 VOLUNTEERS TO GIVE BLOOD. So far we have 14, and it's early, so it's looking good. But we need to know as soon as possible if we can get to that magic number of 16. We ask that you call (208-686-8686) or email (sunmeadow@sunmeadow.org) to let us know if you will come to give blood that day. And thanks!!

If Doug and Colleen can have a keg of beer ready for that date, they've agreed to donate it so we can give some (or root beer) to each blood donor.

The schedule will begin at 10 AM, and they'll take two every 15 minutes. Oh, and we have to wear something when we enter the bloodmobile. Let us know if you have a preferred time.
