After dinner, a concert featuring Andy Hackbarth. (Tickets $14) Award-winning classical/Spanish/fingerstyle guitar virtuoso Andy Hackbarth pays tribute to the “Father of the Classical Guitar,” Andres Segovia, through instrumental selections and short stories about Segovia's life and music. This eclectic musical journey transports listeners from the music of Bach and the cathedrals of Germany to the hills of Spain and the work of Albeniz and Tarrega, from classical Europe to the southern tip of South America. "A Tribute to Segovia" also looks to modern music and how Segovia's work has influenced the contemporary guitar world.

Raised in the Rocky Mountain region of Colorado, Hackbarth grew up surrounded by folk songs and classical music. He combines both of those early influences to create his own unique sound, which draws on his years of study of classical guitar at the Aspen Music School, as well as his willingness to explore, experiment with and electrify traditional folk music. The resulting body of work has taken him across the country-where he’s made a name for himself as a singer, songwriter, instrumentalist and bandleader.

3. November 4-5 and 11-12: Bow Hunting at Sun Meadow

Sun Meadow continues to be a gun free zone; however we have created an opportunity November 4-5 and 11-12 to open remote areas on the property for archery and crossbow deer hunting. Those interested must have a 2017 Idaho resident or non-resident license and deer tag. Please contact the office ahead of time if this is of interest to you. Reservation deadline is October 29. Access to these limited areas will be assigned based on the numbers participating and time availability. Upon arriving, participants will need to register with the office (all normal grounds fees, room rates, and RV rates apply). Rooms and RV sites are available.

Last year we had just one weekend of bow hunting, and just one bow hunter: Doug was able to bag a 4-point buck his first day out. We decided to expand to two weekends this year in case he's not so lucky, and to accommodate more hunters. There is room for 3 hunters, and Doug will coordinate the hunting locations. Please call 208-686-8686 and let us know if you want to participate, and which weekend. Remember, bow hunting only!

Also, remember to change the clocks before going to bed Saturday night November 4.

4. Thanksgiving at the Meadow

At Sun Meadow we put a slightly different twist on Thanksgiving. We will celebrate Thanksgiving in the nude with our friends on the Saturday before Thanksgiving - November 18. Then on Wednesday, November 22, at noon, we put on our clothes for a textile weekend that lasts until noon on Sunday. Bring your textile friends and family for a tour of the facility and if you're so inclined, come for another turkey dinner on Thursday. We do not charge grounds fees during the textile period.

5. Christmas 2017

Just so you can fit us into your plans, here is what we will be doing for Christmas: The Sun Meadow Christmas cookie exchange, Christmas dinner and gift exchange will be Saturday, December 16. On Monday morning the kitchen will close and we will not offer lodging until Friday, December 29. This allows us to go see our own families for Christmas. The holidays are getting so close we can feel it!
